COORDINATOR FOR THE READING
TOGETHER OUTREACH MENTOR
PROGRAM - JOYCE RIORDAN

Twenty years as a member of Emmanuel has offered me many rich opportunities to grow and give back to the church in a variety of ways including a recent term on the vestry as Junior Warden, Facility Management Leader, and Clerk. It's hard to top the three years on the vestry for the variety of experiences, fellowship and personal growth but leading the 2015 God's House God's Work Campaign is a close second.

Developing the Reading Together Outreach Mentor Program is my newest adventure. A pilot program began last spring with six Reading Mentors matched with second grade students at Sheridan Elementary School. This fall, the program will launch in a much larger capacity with 20 Reading Mentors who will be placed in 8 second classrooms across the district.

Bill and I have been married for 29 years and together we raised two beautiful children who are now adults. Amy completes her studies in Florence, Italy this December and Brian is interviewing for that first professional job. I presently work as a reading tutor for the Petoskey Library and Bill continues his 30 year career as a physician.

THANKFULNESS

Special thanks to the guest musicians who played at the 10:00 a.m. service today:

Amy Cross - Soprano
Chas Helge - Cellist
Jane Ann Bahr - Flutist

We at Emmanuel appreciate the sharing of your time and talent with us!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LARC RETREAT OCTOBER 22-24 Augustine Center in Conway

LARC stands for Lutherans, Anglicans (in the broadest sense) and Roman Catholics. The annual retreat is a time for ecumenical dialogue in the context of shared prayer and reflection. Our theme is "Going Out Yet Not Knowing: Ministry in the Paradox of a Connected / Disconnected Culture": We live in the paradox of a culture that is more connected than ever before and yet more dis-connected. We seek a better understanding of the "Nones", "Dones" and "Spiritual But Not Religious", who are nonetheless hungry for authentic spirituality and for social community grounded in shared values.

For more details and registration, contact Dave Penniman (231-330-5445, dpenniman@gmail.com) or see the flyers on the table in the entry area.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday school returns September 15. We are looking for additional teachers and volunteers who are willing to assist and be a second adult presence in the rooms (per our Safeguarding God's Children policy).

If you are open to helping out in either of these important roles (even occasionally), please contact Ashley Price 231-881-0715.
