GREETINGS FROM THE MOYNIHANS

Dick and Juliet Moynihan, faithful summer seasonal members [prior to the pandemic this summer], would like to say HELLO and would like everyone here at EEC to know they are safe at their new single family home in Texas. Covid-19 has had no impact on them and they are well. They are hoping to meet again someday here in Petoskey/at EEC.

"Thank you, Judy!"

With churches being allowed to open for in-person worship again around the middle of September 2020, we were hopeful that our dedicated EEC Choir would be in the choir stalls for Advent and Christmas this year. However, this was not to be! After a surge in Covid-19 infections, we were required to cease in-person services just before the First Sunday of Advent, a situation projected to last through the winter months.

To ensure that our services still included the level of musical excellence we've come to expect at Emmanuel, soprano Judith Zorn enthusiastically agreed to step into the role of cantor, leading the service music and hymn-singing in addition to providing a special anthem for our weekly livestreamed services! Judy's contribution to our worship was enthusiastically and gratefully received by so many, and we thank you for the many expressions of appreciation we received from all those who worshipped with us online.

"Judy, thank you for your willingness to share your wonderful musical gifts with us this Advent and Christmastide!"

YOU can have a part in the creation of this piece which received it's world premiere performance at Emmanuel on Christmas Eve.

Composer GWYNETH WALKER created this work in response to a request from Music Director André Strydom, and what a lovely addition it was to our Candlelight service this year.

By making a monetary donation to the creation of this music, you will be helping us to perpetuate Emmanuel's reputation for fine music.

You can also have the work dedicated to someone, and have the names of yourself and that person included for posterity on the published sheet music.

For more information or to discuss your interest/donation, speak with ANDRÉ STRYDOM.
